

Please quit spending your time and our money worrying about who is broadcasting our local weather reports and focus on real issues. I am perfectly capable of tuning into the competitor who gives me the best service and most accurate reports. We do not want or need the government telling us what or who we can or cannot listen to. I think the government has much larger issues they could be dealing with.